

Freedom Classroom

The North American Religious Liberty Association West and
The SIFE Program of La Sierra University

The NARLA West and SIFE program of La Sierra University are offering the following scholarships based on the outcome of the essay contest

Six $1,000.00 Scholarship awards towards a one week trip to Washington, D.C., June 13-20, 2012

Six $500.00 Scholarship awards towards a one week trip to Washington, D.C., June 13-20, 2012

One $500.00 scholarship award is offered by SIFE (La Sierra University) for successful enrollment at La Sierra University

What can you expect in Washington D.C.?

Join other youth from academies across the Pacific Union and learn how SDA youth can help resolve national polarization problems. Meet new friends and network to keep contemporary the issues that will affect your future

Become proficient in understanding the current issues which divide the nation and learn how to be proactive, not reactive

Receive a medallion award as an outstanding High School student and American citizen

We will be visiting

Your Congressman and Senators
Thomas Jefferson's home
Colonial Williamsburg
Harpers Ferry and Antietam National Battlefields
Washington D.C. Monuments
Walk by the White House
The Seventh Day Adventist World Headquarters

Enjoy

Nightly group sessions with other outstanding students from across the Pacific Union
Nightly Stays at Marriott Hotels and Pizza parties

Your Government, History and Bible Teachers have all the information on how to get in on the best thing you can do for your college future. Or you can go to <http://freedomclassroom.wordpress.com/> for more information. This is an educational trip for those interested in furthering their understanding of current societal issues and how to be a positive influence.